

The strange faces we see every day—not a few, but many, at the hotel, at the business houses, upon the streets, quite conversational, eager about many affairs and full of enquiry, indicate there is a very favorable impression abroad concerning Hartford and the county surrounding it; for the fact of their being here as the agents of business houses, capitalists of the large cities East, West, North and South, is prima facie evidence of the notoriety this county has and the high estimation in which we are held abroad; of the capital she yields and the vast amount of business transacted here. This is all very well, and shows what has been done; but, at the same time, is proof of what may be done far in advance of the present condition of things. A little effort has done much to advance our character abroad and inspired our citizens with commendable energy and pride of home. How much more can be done to enlarge trade, increase population and give to labor employment, can not be answered now, for no man can see what our future may be with all the advantages that cluster about us, but that ten times the business will easily be done and ten times as many workmen employed may very safely be predicted with the same energy and enterprize that exists in points similarly situated. Here could be large manufacturers of plows, doing extensive business for home and abroad; cooper establishments, supplying pork and flour barrels, lard kegs and tobacco hogsheads; slaughter houses, affording a market for all the hogs raised in the county. This is a good point for the purchase, pricing and sale of tobacco, and infinitely better than the markets of other places so far distant and usually so uncer-

LIVERMORE, KY., Dec 20.

Editor Herald:

Having passed a few more pleasant and enjoyable days in revival meeting with the people of Livermore since I dropped you a card, I now take pleasure

We are having very large congregations. Our house of worship here, being rather small, has nearly been crowded to its utmost capacity, leaving a large part of the audience out of doors, which, though the nights are not very cold, is several times, after being overpowered by the sun, people coming in from the house comprising from the surrounding country, we have moved into a large house on Main street, kindly offered to us by Mrs. Eaves, of this place. Since the move we still have an increase in the assembly and the interest of the meeting. On last evening there were fifteen penitents at the altar, while quite a number manifested some interest. Up to this writing nine persons have been converted and four have joined the M. E. church. Quite a change has come over Livemore. The saloon keepers have few customers, and we anticipate receiving quite a number of the friends into the revival movement just as soon as the reviving meeting closes. Have had but little help ministerially; have preached nineteen sermons, and am occupied most of the time, of days, visiting the many friends, and then call for the invitations extended, and Mr. Elford, who may well suppose we are tiring him out, says every day, though he does not always wear "the purple" and flourish. The many luxuries upon the tables are too numerous to mention, but among the meats you may be sure the chicken finds a place. You know hawks are bad for fowls, but the Crows (Crow families) are worse on them here than the hawks.

Ero James, from Ileda, is with us at present, rendering efficient service as an exhorter, and also takes the meat off the chicken bones about as completely as an old hand at the business.

I received the Mr. Phelps' pledges ordered to be sent to you, and in good order. Hope to see them up very soon and call on you more. With wishes for your success and happiness, we remain,

Yours, ever,
T. J. PENDER

Jonathan—removed to what is now Harrison county, Indiana, about 25 miles northwest of Louisville, and formed a new settlement called "Boone Settlement." He died there, in 1815; and as his dying request, was buried in a cave near the summit of a lofty eminence that commanded a beautiful and extended view.

W. gives some interesting particu-

Borne above the descendants of Enoch Boone, Squire's second son; and claims that Enoch Boone was the first son of Enoch Boone. He mentions October 16, 1777, as his birthday. Collins' History of Kentucky, vol. I, page 513, (the large edition) says: "Enoch Boone * * * * * was born, in a canebrake near Boonsboro, November 16, 1777. He died February 8, 1862, aged 84, on the banks of the Ohio river, in Meade county, Ky., at the residence of his son-in-law, Judge Collins Fitch. Many persons believed him to be the first child born in Kentucky; and yet it is not improbable that fifteen were born earlier." * * *

On the same page and the page preceding are given the names of three males and six females, who were born in Kentucky more than five months earlier than Enoch Boone viz:

1. Harrod William, born at Harrodsburg in 1776.
2. William Hinton, born at Harrodsburg in 1776.
3. Chenoe Hart, daughter of Col. Nathaniel Hart, born at Boonsboro, probably in 1776.
4. Daniel Boone, born at Boonsboro, probably in 1776.
5. Louisa Whitley, daughter of Col. Wm. Whitley, born at Logan's Station, near Stanford, February 25, 1776. She married Mr. McKinney, removed to Missouri in 1819, and died February 18, 1833, aged 77.
6. Mrs. Rhoda Vaughn, daughter of Col. John Henderson, born at Boonsboro in 1776 or early in 1777. She died at Lexington, in June, 1863, aged 87.
7. Judge William Logan, eldest son of Gen. Benjamin Logan, born in the town of Brandenburg, December 8, 1776; was twice judge of the court of Appeals, U. S. Senator in 1819-20, and when he died, at 45, was looked forward to as the next Governor.
8. Ann Pogue, was born in the town of Harrodsburg, April 20, 1777. She married her relative, Gen. John Pogue, and died at his residence in Group county, Kentucky, in 1849, aged 70.

matter, and received an answer stating that Harrison alias May had a wife and three children living in Tiffin, and that he deserted her about about seven years ago, since which time she had heard nothing of his whereabouts. He also informs us that since he deserted her she learned that he had a wife and two children before he married her, thereby establish the fact that he is "The Much Married May." He also sends photograph of Harrison and wife, and every child in town who knew him while he recognized it as H. H. May. Had he been successful in continuing his career there is scarcely any doubt but that he would have had as many wives as Brigham Young; and there is good reason to suppose that he was endeavoring to make his way to Salt Lake City, where it is considered no harm to have as many wives as there are wheels,—or at least as many as he can take care of.

Young ladies, take warning, and always know something of the man whom you marry.

We sometimes censure too much, but when we take into consideration that our good old Mother Eve, the illustrious prototype of her sex, standing in the Garden of Eden, surrounded by Crawford peaches, Isabella grapes, Bartlett pears, Damson plums and Jersey pippins, was discontented till she had sampled those choice Baldwins, brought sin into the world, and banked Adam out of Paradise, we are not surprised at anything. Since that time men have sown and sowed, worked early and late; gone ragged and stale, and have been obliged to go out and borrow to satisfy the ever-increasing wants of woman. Through feminine disobedience the cotton threads of sin have been so closely interwoven in the material of our existence that it is impossible to get rid of them.

"Oh! I could I stand where Adam stood,
And with the Tempter grapple,
Not Satan's wiles, nor woman's smiles,
Quail me!"

Business is looking up considerably in Caneyville. Tobacco, though bringing a very low price, has commenced moving. John Claggett, Jr., has returned home to take up his abode in Caneyville, where he is attending college.

Several of our young and married ladies have gone to Spring Lick to attend to the duties of the season.

The citizens are making preparations for a merry Christmas, and fat turkeys and ducks are in good demand.

Persons desirous of corresponding with me, who wish maps and descriptive catalogues, etc., of Texas, will please address me, care of Cliff P. Kennedy, corner Fourth and Main streets, Louisville, Ky.

thing with rheumatism. Sometimes there would be weeks at a time when I could not step one step; these attacks were quite often I suffered everything that a man could. Over three years ago last spring I commenced taking VEGEINE and followed it up until I had taken seven bottles; I have had no rheumatism since that time. I have always advised every one that is troubled with rheumatism to try VEGEINE, and not to suffer for years as I have done. The treatment is gratuitous as far as Mr. Stevens is concerned. Yours, etc.,

VEGETINE
HAS ENTIRELY CURED ME.

Boston, October 1870.

MR. H. R. STEVENS,
Dear Sir—My daughter, after having a severe attack of Whooping Cough, was left in a feeble state of health. Being advised by a friend she tried the VEGETINE, and after using a few bottles was fully restored to health. I have long been suffering from Rheumatism. I have taken several bottles of the Vegetine for this complaint, and am happy to say that it has entirely cured me. I have recommended the Vegetine to others with the same good results. It is a great cleanser of the blood, and is easy to take, and I can cheerfully recommend it.

JAMES MORSE, 364 Athens St.

RHEUMATISM IN A DISEASE OF THE BLOOD.
The blood in this disease, is found to contain an excess of fibrin. VEGETINE acts by converting the blood from its diseased condition to a healthy one, and thus cures the disease. The vessels, which is very important in this complaint. One bottle of Vegetine will give relief, but to secure a permanent cure it must be taken regularly, and may take several bottles, especially in cases of long standing. Vegetine is sold in small packages, and the following verses will be suggested to each of those before you, who say, "I never found a blood purifier so efficacious as VEGETINE," which is composed exclusively of Barks, Roots and Herbs.

"VEGETINE," says a Boston physician, "has no equal as a blood purifier. Hearing of its many virtues, I procured a bottle, and after using it failed, I visited the laboratory and convinced myself of its genuine merit. It is prepared from the most valuable herbs, and its use is highly effective, and they are compounded in such a manner as to produce astonishing results."

VEGETINE.
NOTHING EQUAL TO IT.
South Salem, Mass, Nov. 14, 1876.

MR. H. R. STEVENS—
Dear Sir—We have been troubled with Scrofula, Canker and Liver Complaint for three years; nothing ever did me any good until I commenced using VEGETINE. I am now getting along first rate, and still using the Vegetine. I consider there is nothing better for Scrofula, Canker and Liver Complaint, and I recommend it to everybody. Yours, truly,

To Prevent and Cure Coughs and Colds.

A reliable remedy is necessary in every household. Parker's Ginger Tonic is just the medicine needed. It radically cures colds, coughs, sore throat, bronchitis, and even consumption, if used in time, by its powerful specific action on the stomach, kidneys, skin, liver, and mucous surface of the throat and lungs. In this natural way it cleanses the waste matters from the blood, builds up the tissues, fortifies the system against further attacks, and permanently allays inflammation of the throat, lungs, and other organs. It is a powerful invigorant, and affords just the help that the aged, the feeble, and the convalescent require, because it restores perfect digestion and enjoyment of the food, enriches the blood, and arouses the dormant energies of the debilitated organs. It cures dyspepsia with its varied symptoms of headache, weakness, sour stomach, bad taste in the mouth, constipation, liver complaint, palpitation of the heart, etc., and while it never intoxicates nor creates any desire for stimulants, it diffuses warmth and vigor through the system, restores the appetite, soothes the nerves, banishes melancholy, and gives strength and elasticity to the worn out frame. Buy a $1.00 bottle from your druggist, Z. Wayne Griffin, Hartford, Ky., and test its extraordinary merits.

South America and Southern United States.

Owing to their warm and delightful climates, their inhabitants grow sorrow from torpid livers, indigestion and all diseases arising from a disordered stomach and bowels. They should, of course, at all times keep the liver active, and to our readers we would recommend Tabler's Vegetable Liver Powder. Taken in time, will often save money and much suffering. Price 50 cents. J. W. Ford, Hartford, Ky.

The Buckeye.

It is a well established fact, that Tabler's Buckeye Pile Ointment will cure, it is used according to directions. The Buckeye Hippocastanum, or Horse Chestnut, commonly known as the Buckeye, has been highly esteemed for many years, owing to the fact that it possesses virtues, lying in the bitter principle called Esculin, which can be utilized for the cure of Piles. It is affected with that terrible disease, as Buckeye Pile Ointment, and be relieved. J. W. Ford, Hartford, Ky.

Antiseptic Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used BOSCHER'S GERMAN SYRUP to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all druggists to recommend it to the poor suffering consumptive, at least to try one bottle. As 40,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. Sample bottles for trial sold at 10 cents. Regular price 75 cents.

THE HARTFORD CHRISTMAS TREE.

Last Monday night will long be held in remembrance by the entire populace of Hartford, but more especially by the young people. As was announced some time ago in the Herald, there would be a Christmas tree at the courthouse on the night named above, and since that time grand preparations have been made to make the tree surpass anything of like nature that had ever before come off in Hartford—and it did.

The youths of the town have for some time been in the highest glee and their faces were radiant with smiles as they thought and dreamed of the happy future for them, in which untold tokens of remembrance would be distributed among them. Nor by any means was the distribution of presents confined to the little folks, for scores and scores of the most valuable and highly acceptable presents were called for and conveyed to those who have reached mature years. An attempt to name one-tenth part of the presents that so tastefully decorated the evergreen would prove a complete failure on our part, and so our special artist, after more than a whole night of hard labor, has succeeded in engraving a representative cut, but should there be any deficiencies in it, those who saw the tree will know he was lacking in time to do ample justice. Here is his effort.

(Engraved by our Special Artist)

The pleasure of the night opened with the beautiful song entitled "Merry, Merry Christmas Eve," which was well rendered by the Hartford choir, at the conclusion of which "Old Santa" appeared, and his comicalities were the source of much mirth the remainder of the evening. The committee made a good selection in "Old Santa," as one more appropriate could not have been found. To make the whole thing a perfect success, and to add much grace and beauty to the whole, the most lovely of earth's jewels were selected as prizes, who were none else than Misses Dollie Hardwick, Nettie Miller, Loga Walker and Mamie Williams, and it was really amusing to see the boys smile when their names were called and they would see these winning creatures making for them with their hickorynut-faced dolls, cotton-stuffed biscuits, pickled pig's feet, etc., which had been hanging upon the tree by their "Hartfording."

The ladies who had charge of "unbeautifying" the tree all looked lovely, and their rose tinted cheeks were but interpreters of their modesty. They graced the part over which they presided.

In short, it was a perfect success, and was creditable to all concerned.

"OLD MAIDS" MUSINGS.

Spry and spruce, and dry and dry, All this, I'm told to be; How much is truth, how much is lie, Let others say, not me. They call me, too, a prude, Tall and straight and spare; Although this sounds extremely rude, I'll try it all, to hear. They say I'm ugly, old and ill, With hair a mass to my ears; Let them say what they will, I'll also, old maids define— For we, like the Jews, A "miss and a by-word" are; They say we never die— A trade, greatly below par, But after all, they'll take and scrape— They'll never call me "Mamie!" My name won't rhyme with "Jennie." 'Tis true, I'd like to be a lass, Provided with a "Bosch" and "Sass"— Now, with the "I" close. Old Maid.

New Firm in Crosswell.

Mr. W. G. Telford has bought an interest in the Crosswell Steak Mill, and went to Cincinnati last week and bought a new engine much better than the old one, and is going to fix up the mill in first-class order in every respect. Messrs. Paxton & Telford will, we have every reason to believe, make the mill a grand success. We congratulate our friends in Crosswell and vicinity that they are fortunate enough to have such enterprising men among them. We understand that Mr. J. P. McCoy will be in charge of the mill, and he is a good, faithful worker.

Christmas goods of the nicest, newest and latest styles at Z. Wayne Griffin's.

The Ohio County Grange will meet at Newville, on Friday, the 4th day of January, 1878. The Masters of Subordinate Lodges will please attend and receive the annual word. There is also a deputy to elect for the county. Meeting at 10 o'clock, a. m., and also at night. Dec. 20th, 1877. D. J. K. MASON, Master Ohio County Grange.

Over shoes, for both ladies and gentlemen can be found at Messrs. Baer Bros. & Co's store.

"Ye olden time" is exemplified in the old Western Farmer's Almanac, which has made its appearance for 1878 on our table as bright, entertaining, and vigorous as ever, notwithstanding Time has added another to its half century of years. Among the many original articles we may mention "Going out to Farm," by the versatile humorist, M. Quid. It is a laughable sketch. "Agricultural Chemistry," from the pen of Prof. Robert Peter, one of, if not the ablest writer on such subjects in America, is of interest to all who till the soil for pleasure or for profit. "Wheat and Wheat Lands of America," by Duncan, is another well-written and valuable article. In short, all are meritorious and valuable. In the selected matter there is a little of everything. Even the mottoes which line the margins of the pages are a fund of amusement and instruction in themselves. It is an easy and cheap way to make your fireside cheery through the tedious hours of a winter's night. The present number also contains the time of meeting of all the courts in Kentucky. Ten cents will bring it to you. John P. Morton & Co., publishers, Louisville, Ky.

O YES! O YES! All who want $75.00 Wagons at $65.00 in CASH, call on WILLIAMS & TRACY, Hartford, Kentucky.

Married.

"Wedlock's joys are soft and sweet, When two hearts in union meet. The County Clerk took in the interesting situation and politely arranged the legal requirements, and the ceremony at Hyman's altar by the Rev. G. J. Bean soon made the twin one, and Boston Spinks and Eliza Likens are now Mr. and Mrs. Spinks. Capt. Cox assures us the marriage, though not a brilliant one, was quiet and pleasant and full of future promise.

Santa Claus' Picture.

When old Santa Claus came to town to dispense his toys and gifts to the little ones, he lit on top of the Court House, and left his sleigh and team of reindeer and packed himself up with nice things, and went down the chimney into the House, and gave them to the young ladies there to put on the Christmas tree. Just as he was getting ready to start down the chimney our special artist, who was on the watch for him, caught sight of him and at once sketched down his picture, and here it is exact:

SANTA CLAUS.

Christmas gift, to every body.

Testimonial.

HARTFORD, Ky., Dec. 25, 1877.

MR. JOHN K. WILLIAMS: Dear Sir—Having some time since purchased one of Wilson's Shuttle Sewing Machines, No. 9, for my wife, the general satisfaction it has given in every particular induced me to add my endorsement to the numerous testimonials of its excellence as a machine for general family use. I deem it infinitely superior to any machine now in the market. It is handsome in appearance, substantial in structure and exquisite in finish, being a beautiful ornament and at the same time a perfect, useful and indispensable necessity. It is equal to all the requirements of manufacturing and family work, sewing with equal rapidity, strength and neatness the heaviest leather and the daintiest fabric. It runs with ease, and its speed is one-third more rapid than any other machine in use, and the variety of work it is capable of accomplishing, makes it the most complete of machines. As a hemmer, folder, binder, tucker, quilter, braider, ruffler, corder, danner, etc., it has no superior; besides, I find other advantages, which, to enumerate, would swell this note to extraordinary dimensions. I cannot, however, refrain from mentioning the neat and ingenious attachment for filling the bolsters without having to remove the work from under the needle.

With many wishes for your success with a machine that is all, in every respect, that is claimed for it.

I remain, respectfully, A. H. CUMMIS.

PUBLIC SALE OF LAND.

Ohio Circuit Court. Frank Griffin's Adm., Plffs., against Frank Griffin's heirs, Defs. Notice.

By virtue of a judgment of this court rendered in this case at the November term, 1877, thereof, I, as Special Commissioner of said court in said case, will offer for sale the said land ordered by said judgment to be sold, consisting of a tract of 400 acres lying in Ohio county, Ky., on Rough creek, a short distance above Hartford, Ky. Said land will first be offered by lots—having been divided into three lots—and then it will be all offered in one lot, and the bid most advantageous for the estate will be accepted. The sale will take place at the front door at the courthouse in Hartford, by public auction, to the highest bidder, on Monday, the 10th day of January, 1878, on a credit of six, twelve and eighteen months, for equal parts of the purchase money, or so much of said land will be sold as may be necessary to make the sum of $8,075.46. The purchaser will be required to execute bond with good security, payable to the Commissioner, bearing interest from date until paid, and to have the force and effect of a judgment. A lien will also be retained on the land as additional security.

A. B. BAIRD, Special Com'r. Ohio Cir. Court. Hartford, Ky., Dec. 15, 1877.

Beaver Dam Item.

One of the newest and most interesting attractions at Beaver Dam is the new store of Baer Bros. & Co. They have a well selected stock of dry goods, notions, dress goods, fancy articles, underwear, boots and shoes, hats, clothing, etc., etc. They also are now receiving a splendid stock of groceries. All of these goods have been bought for cash under the pressure of the times by experienced purchasers, and hence bought very low—and listen: they are determined to sell them the same way. All they ask to convince you of this fact, is a trial. Respectfully, BAER BROS. & CO.

Our friend and former townsman, Dr. Luvera Berry, now of Yazoo City, Miss., is in town, visiting friends and relatives.

Thirty-five years of business experience ought to teach a man how to conduct business right. Julius Winter & Co., S. E. cor. 3rd and Market sts., Louisville, Ky., have been engaged in the manufacture of clothing and merchant tailor business for that length of time successfully, purchase your supply of clothes from them and you will be honestly dealt with.

Taken up by Wiley B. Robinson, living about three miles east of Rockport, Ohio county, Ky., one sorrel horse colt about one year old last spring, with some white in face, snip on the nose, left hind foot black, hip in right hip; no other marks or brand visible. Appraised at ten dollars by W. M. Southard. Given under my hand this 27th day of November, 1877. D. J. WILCOX. v3 51 t

Notes as they occur.

Editor, Herald:

As usual, I am "on the wing" in the interest of the Temperance Advance, the subscription list for which has nearly reached seven hundred, and rapidly increasing. I am now at Hopkinsville. You will have seen that the great Temperance singers, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln, have been here. I was unfortunate in not getting here till the day after they left. They certainly have a magic power in song, for they leave behind them the stamp of their influence wherever they go. Though their stay in this little city was but a few days, 1500 signed the Murphy pledge under the influence of their songs. It really seems marvellous that two persons, a man and wife, could sway the multitude so easily; yet so it is, and doubtless it is right. He who rules in the heavens and over all things knows best. In his providence, he has seen proper to endow, here and there, an individual with rare gifts for special purposes. Happy he, happy she, who uses such endowments as divinely intended.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln. The Murphy fever rages at Paducah and in the vicinity thereof. Mr. Nesbit is in the city, thrilling the masses with the power of his eloquence. Hundreds are assuming the pledge and donning the blue ribbon. At Woodville, below the city, Mr. T. H. Dale lectured one night, and seventy-five signed the pledge. And so the work goes on. Like a tornado the Murphy excitement sweeps over the land. May we not pause and ask what will be the finale of all this furor? Will it be for good, or will it be for evil? It is with the people themselves to answer. The pledge itself is a good one. The veriest misanthrope would have to admit this. If those who assume it will keep it sacred and inviolate it will be for their good both in time and eternity. If they violate it, as thousands will, it can avail them nothing. Better that they had never known it. Here, then, rests the question as to whether the Murphy work is a good one. It is with the people.

I have been enjoying the hospitalities of Prof. J. W. Rust, President of Bethel Female College, during my stay here. This is a fine school and is enjoying a high degree of prosperity. No man can better his daughter's condition in school than by sending to Bethel Female College.

I called on Sam Gaines of the New Era, and Mr. Dodd, of the Democrat, and found them both clever gentlemen. The Hartford Herald is a favorite exchange with them, as it is with the press generally, so far as I have learned. But I must close. Success to you.

T. E. RICHES.

Pellville, Ky., Dec. 15, 1877.

Editor, Herald:

It is said that "true genius will assert itself," and we sight the HERALD, as a proof of the fact, and especially is it true, with regard to its Educational Column, which speaks with a clarion voice in favor of its editor, showing him, as it does, to be a man of quick discernment, highly cultivated taste and the most profound ability. While we have no personal acquaintance with Prof. Hawkins, we have a deep sympathy in the cause, which he is so nobly struggling to lead out of its present twilight sphere, into the glorious noonday of enlightenment. Prof. Hawkins, we hail you thrice welcome to the championship of Ohio county's educational interest. We hope with such a leader as yourself and such a lever as the HERALD, that we may be able to raise the standard of intellect to its highest attainment. We are all in favor of a teachers' association. The profession needs a uniformity of character of which it is almost entirely destitute. It seems to us that frequent association would be the most effective way of assimilation and of developing that identity of teaching that should characterize the profession. This aimless, shiftless way of teaching, as most of it is done, is very little indeed. Mr. Hawkins, you may scratch us down as being in favor of the association, whether we can attend its meetings or not. If in our power count us on hand. While upon this subject, we will say that Pellville, in future, will be a good opening for teachers of ability. The people want to have a graded school run next fall, and he who has the "git-up-and-git," may apply, but none others. As you have been told, we are having a very interesting school at present, yet the people seem to think that if they had a white man instead of a Black one to lead their little flock by the still waters that flow from the pierian fount, that their labors would be crowned with much greater success and made supremely happy. For information respecting the educational interests of this town, we refer you to Dr. Albert Huff.

Rosine, Ky., Dec. 17, 1877.

Editor, Herald:

Business seems to be improving since our mills have commenced running. Fears were entertained by some that the mills were a failure on account of not having water sufficient; but that fear no longer exists now, as we have found plenty to run our mill. They commenced grinding wheat last Thursday, and quite a number of wagons are now seen about the mill. Reine claims to have one of the best mills in the State.

Rev. H. D. Sherer and Jas. C. Davis are conducting a meeting at Mount Pleasant Church. It has been in progress for several days with flattering prospects.

Mrs. J. Wayne Griffin and daughter and Mrs. Larkin Griffin were in town last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lewis.

Good crops of tobacco, wheat and corn have been raised through this part of the county, and Jas. Riley & Son are paying the best prices for tobacco that I have heard of this season. There has been ten hds of the new crop shipped from this station.

Hon. H. D. McHenry was in town Saturday; also our favorite drummer, Harry Bridges, was here with a full line of Christmas goods.

I see in your last week's issue a letter from Fordville, signed "Hardware," stating that a gentleman had taken a contract to furnish wives for $25.00 each. I am requested by several young ladies to know if this gentleman will furnish good, religious, temperate, honest, industrious, persevering young men, that don't wear their hats to one side nor part their hair in the middle, for the same price, if so, he can get a few dollars by locating here.

HAIR VEGETABLE SICIALIAN HAIR RENEWER. This standard article is compounded with the greatest care. Its effects are as wonderful and as satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff. It gives the head a cooling, soothing sensation of great comfort, and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing, nothing has been found so effective or desirable.

A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes."
